NAME OF SUBJECT UDENATOKAS, Ragny		7 January 1908
On 4 May 1956, SUBJECT was re-interviewed at his place of residence. A Keesbrunn, LUDWIG-BURG-ORNDORF, Baden-Wuerttemberg, Germany, and stated in substance the following: From November 1955 to March 1956, SUBJECT worked as a clerk for the Burghof Sanatorium, SCHNIGGERS, Germany. SUBJECT was in the employ of a Professor Doctor LIVAMM. During this period of employment, SUBJECT resided at the Sanatorium, although his main place of residence remained in LUDWIG-BURG. SUBJECT did not give this information during his initial Subject interview because he thought that he was only supposed to list permanent employment. SUBJECT was released from his position before he had completed the probationary period. SUBJECT had earned DM 200.- plus room and board for himself and his wife. AGENT'S NOTE: SUBJECT was re-interviewed when it was developed during the course of the investigation that he had been employed since October 1955. SUBJECT had stated in his initial Subject interview that he had been unemployed since that date. The possibility exists that SUBJECT was attempting to conceal this information.
